Question- Does John mean nephews when he says "couzens"? If so, John (d. 1712) and Thos. (d. 1702/3) were brothers and both were brothers of William (d. 1697), whose wife, Anne, gave a power of attorney in 1695 to "Brother Mr. William Edwards".- Why did John will land to his cousin Thomas Edwards, "where he nowlives" if this Thomas had inherited 1/2 of his father's planatation?

Edwards-Barham line as constructed by Mrs. Lewis Chapman

I believe the Tith lists sent you had an error, probably from my copying.

In 1679 & 1680, in addition to Wm, John & Thos Edwards-Southwarke Parish and Thos Edwards-Hogg Island, is listed

Mr. Edwards and Wm Pettway.

I believe this should be Mr. Edward and Wm Pettway, as it appears this way in my 1678 list. I got to wondering about "Mr Edwards(and Wm Pettway) since I could not place him.

Nugents' Cavaliers and Pioneers, Page 525, lists a patent as follows:

Capt John Savadge 9000 acres N'ampton Co. 2 Oct. 1664 for trans. 122 persons, including Thos Edwards, John Edwards, Wm Edwards.(Other Surry names John Hancock, John Holt, Mary White, Wm Evans, Susan Hart and Wm White. Could these be the three Edwards of Surry, or do you know of any positive proof that their father was the Wm Edwards who died in 1670, and whose widow married Wm Richardson? The Wm & Mary Quarterly article seems to assume that Wm, John & Thos Edwards were sons of Wm, who they say died about 1673, but as far as I can offers no proof of this
